To all who auditioned:

Thank you for sharing your talent with us for this production. Your commitment to doing quality work is truly inspiring - particularly in this time of COVID. Based on what I saw over the last several nights, it is clear that each of you are not letting the challenges we face in the midst of this pandemic compromise your genuine intent to create high quality and meaningful theatre in this zoom environment.

I “tip my hat” to you, and I thank you. Truly.

Ray Miller,
Playwright and Director
