Perhaps our resident sage, Derek Davidson, said it best: “This is an embarrassment of riches!” The depth of talent blew us all away, and we could have cast most of the principal roles two or three times over, and more than doubled the size of the women’s ensemble. You made us all very proud. If you would like to discuss your audition, do not hesitate to email the director for an appointment. Please initial this cast list to accept your role and await further instructions from our stage manager. Congratulations to everyone involved... bravo!
